

allow citizens to opt out of cable channels which are offensive, and this will send a message to the producers of such filth that it no longer sells to the American people. Or they simply loose all my cable business. give us a choice, please.